American Society for Dental Ethics and SIU School of Dental Medicine Invite You to Attend....

Ethics Course for Dental, Dental Hygiene and Dental Assisting Educators

The American Society for Dental Ethics and Southern Illinois University School of Dental Medicine are offering an ethics course for educators. This course is designed to assist those individuals who are teaching ethics and professionalism in dental and allied dental education programs.

Course Topics:
- Teaching, Learning and Assessing Professional Ethics
- Case-Based Approaches to Professional Ethics Education
- Clinical Ethics Approaches to Patient Care
- Decision Model and the Ethics of Patient Relationships

Date: Friday August 14, 2015
1-5 p.m.

Location: Southern Illinois University School of Dental Medicine, Alton, IL
Main Clinic - Building 263, Room 1511 - Roller Hall

Registration $15.00 (includes registration fee and refreshments)

Fee: MC, VISA, Disc., Amex, check (payable to SIUE Foundation)
- SIU School of Dental Medicine instructors - N/C

CE Credit: 4.0 Contact Hours. 4 CEUs will be awarded
ADA CERP is a service of the American Dental Association to assist dental professionals in identifying quality providers of continuing dental education. ADA CERP does not approve or endorse individual courses or instructors, nor does it imply acceptance of credit hours by boards of dentistry.
Panel of Dental Ethics Educators

Dr. Phyllis L. Beemsterboer is Professor and former Associate Dean for Academic Affairs in the School of Dentistry at Oregon Health & Science University in Portland, Oregon. She is an associate director in the Center for Ethics in Health Care at OHSU and co-chairs the interprofessional ethics education program. Her research interest is in bioethics education and she is past president of the American Society for Dental Ethics, a section of the American College of Dentists.

Dr. Don Patthoff practices general dentistry in Martinsburg WV, is a 1974 graduate of the University of Detroit School Of Dentistry, completed his GPR at the Martinsburg VA, is a past-president of West Virginia Dental Association and the Professional Ethics in Dentistry Network, and is a fellow of the American College of Dentists. He co-authors a dental ethics column with David Ozar in AGD’s Impact and chairs the ethics committee of City Hospital in Martinsburg, the ALD ethics committee, the George Washington Institute of Living Ethics, and is a Board member of the International Dental Law and Ethics Society.

Dr. Alvin Rosenblum is Alvin Rosenblum Professor of Clinical Dentistry, Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC (retired) and founder of WLA Dental Center. He is the Immediate Past president of ASDE and the Ethics Course developer at USC as well as a Life Member of the ADA, CDA, and WLADS.

Dr. Gerald Winslow is the Vice President for Mission and Culture, Loma Linda University Health where he also teaches ethics and is Director of the Institute for Health Policy and Leadership. For over forty years, Winslow has studied, taught, and written about ethics in health care. He is a former president of the American Society for Dental Ethics.

Professor Pamela Zarkowski is Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University of Detroit Mercy. She is President – elect of the American Society for Dental Ethics and a Fellow of the American College of Dentists and American College of Legal Medicine.

Dr. Frederick More is Professor, Department of Epidemiology and Health Promotion. Dr. More developed a 4-year curriculum in ethics and professionalism in the predoctoral program at New York University. In addition he teaches courses in bioethics in the MS program in Clinical Research; and Global Leadership MPH program. Dr. More is active in human research ethics and serves as chairman of the NYU Langone Medical Center, NYU School of Medicine Institutional Review Board.

Dr. Lawrence Garetto is appointed as Professor of Oral Pathology, Medicine and Radiology at Indiana University School of Dentistry and Affiliate Faculty in the Charles Warren Fairbanks Center for Medical Ethics. He serves as the advisor to IUSD’s Student Professionalism and Ethics Club and is Past-President of the American Society for Dental Ethics.

Dr. Toni M. Roucka is the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs at Southern Illinois University School of Dental Medicine and acting President of the American Society for Dental Ethics. She is a fellow of the American College of Dentists and has a graduate degree in Bioethics in addition to her DDS. She is a graduate of the University Of Illinois College Of Dentistry.
Course Objectives:

• Identify and apply key concepts, including professional ethics, central values and professional responsibility as it relates to ethical decision-making.
• Interact with colleagues to share best teaching and assessment and evaluation strategies leading to determining knowledge and competence.
• Discuss clinical approaches to patient care and solving ethical dilemmas.

Course Registration: 618-474-7120 (Lori Haring), Fax - 618-474-7150

Please print, fill out and fax to 618-474-7150, Attention: Lori

Name _______________________________________________________________

Address _____________________________________________________________

City _______________________________ State ________ Zip Code ____________

Phone ____________________________ Fax __________________________

Email _______________________________________________________________

Allied Dental Professional [ ] Dentist [ ] Hygienist [ ]

“Concerns or complaints about a CE provider may be directed to the provider or to ADA CERP at ADA.org/goto/cerp

Payment Options: Visa, MC, Disc., Amex, Check

Credit Card # ____________________________ Expiration Date ________ CVV Code _______

Total Amount ____________________________

Signature ________________________________